Dear Nancy:

Many thanks for your thoughtful letter of last Thursday about Foster. It was a fine tribute he received and I am glad that in the last days of his illness, he was able to appreciate the tributes to his work which came from all quarters of the globe.

Dear Bruce:

I sincerely appreciated your thoughtful letter of 27 May about Foster and his work, particularly what you had to say about his work on the Japanese Peace Treaty. Many times during those negotiations, it seemed that it was going to be impossible to get so many countries together in agreement on a single document but with patience, he worked it out.

I had not seen THE TIMES editorial of May 25. I am very glad to have it and I shall share it with Janet.

Sincerely,

Dear Governor:

I sincerely appreciate your thoughtful letter about my brother and your appreciation of his work and accomplishments.

I recall our work together several years ago and I want you to know that we in the Agency profited from the objective report, which General Clark, you and your associates made, and put into effect the major part of the recommendations you made.

Faithfully yours,

Dear Ed:

I sincerely appreciated your letter about Foster. As you mentioned, Foster had very real satisfaction during those last difficult weeks when he could still read or be read to, to know that not only his countrymen but in the far corners of the world there was appreciation of his work.

I want to add that I continue to be grateful to you for all the time and wise counsel you give to my associates and me in our work.

Sincerely,
